2. The case of the prosecution is that on 29.06.2025, during a funeral ceremony, the petitioner, along with the other accused, attacked the de-facto complainant. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an auto driver and the de-facto complainant is his uncle. Due to an ongoing pathway dispute between their families, the de-facto complainant, along with others, damaged the petitioner's auto. When the petitioner questioned this, the de-facto complainant and his group attacked the petitioner and his family members. The petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He has been falsely implicated in this case. However, he is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submits that there are totally three accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as A1. A2 has been granted anticipatory bail by the learned Principal District and Sessions Judge, Tiruchirappalli in Cr.M.P.No.2739 of 2025 on 11.07.2025, and A3 was arrested and subsequently released on bail by the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Srirangam on 10.07.2025 in Cr.M.P.No.2827 of 2025. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and also taking note of the fact that one of the co-accused has been granted anticipatory bail, and another co-accused was arrested and later released on bail, and that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Srirangam, Trichy District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Srirangam, Trichy District, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

(a) the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(b) the petitioner shall furnish his residential address and mobile number to the learned Judicial Magistrate, Srirangam, Trichy District. In the event of any change in his residential address, the petitioner shall report the same to the learned Judicial Magistrate, Srirangam, Trichy District;

(c) the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders;

(d) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;
