The present Transfer Civil Miscellaneous Petition has been filed to withdraw the petition in H.M.O.P.No.106 of 2024 on the file of the learned Family Court, Pudukkottai and transfer the same to the learned Family Court, Sivagangai.

2. The petitioner is the wife and the respondent is the husband.

The marriage between the petitioner and the respondent was solemnized on 27.05.2018 as per the Hindu Rites and Customs at Sri Kalayarkoil Amman Temple at Sivagangai, Sivagangai District. Out of the above said wedlock they have blessed with a girl child.

3. Due to some matrimonial discord, the parties have separated. Therefore, the respondent/husband initiated the proceeding in H.M.O.P.No.106 of 2024, on the file of the Family Court, Pudukkottai Town, seeking divorce.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner/wife submits that his client is living in Sivagangai and she was taken care of by her parents. The distance between the petitioner's residence to Pudukkottai, is around 80 Kms, and being a lady, she finds it difficult to travel such a long distance for attending every Court hearing. Hence, she seeks transfer of proceeding in H.M.O.P.No.106 of 2024 from the file of the Family Court, Pudukkottai to the file of the Family Court, Sivagangai.

5. Even though the respondent was served with notice he did not entered appearance either through Court or in person.

6. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and perused the materials available on records.

7. In the case of N.C.V.Aishwarya Vs. A.S.Saravana Karthik Sha reported in 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has dealt with the position generally, that it is the wife's convenience, which must be looked into while considering the transfer petition under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure and the relevant passage is extracted hereunder :

“The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.", the bench observed."

8. It is also well settled proposition of law that whenever a transfer petition is filed in matrimonial disputes, the convenience of the wife should be predominantly looked into, and the wife's convenience shall be given preference.

9. Considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case and also taking into account of the inconvenience expressed by the petitioner in attending every court hearing, by travelling four hours journey to reach the Family Court, Pudukottai, situated 80 kms away from her Domicile, namely, Sivagangai, incurring huge expense, this court inclines to allow the petition.

10. The learned District Judge, Family Court, Pudukottai, is hereby directed to transfer the entire records pertaining to the case, in H.M.O.P.No.106 of 2024, to the file of the learned District Judge, Family Court, Sivagangai, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, and on receipt of such records, the learned learned District Judge, Family Court, Sivagangai, is directed to take the case on file, and dispose of the case as expeditiously as possible in accordance with law.

11. With the above said directions, this Transfer Civil Miscellaneous Petition stands allowed. There shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, the connected Civil Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
