For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.282 of 2025 on the file of the Respondent Police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 303(2) of BNS, 2023 r/w. Section 21 (1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.282 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused, without any valid permit, illegally excavated sand from the Kaveri river and stored 20 units of the same in Patta No.1680, comprised in SR.No.520. Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and is in no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He has been falsely implicated in this case. He, however, submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submits that there are totally four accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as A1. A3 and A4 were arrested and subsequently released on bail. The entire properties have been recovered. He further submitted that eleven previous cases have been registered against the petitioner, out of which three are of a similar nature. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and considering the quantity of minerals involved, and also taking note of the fact that the entire properties have already been recovered, and that two of the co-accused were arrested and subsequently released on bail, and that as the date of registration of FIR is 21.06.2025, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruvidadaimaruthur, Thanjavur District, on condition that the petitioner shall
