in Crime No.222 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner/accused assured the defacto complainant to secure a job in Railway Department and demanded a sum of Rs.5 lakhs. Believing the words of the petitioner, the defacto complainant has given a sum of Rs.3 lakhs as advance to the bank account of the accused. Thereafter, the defacto complainant tried to approach the petitioner, but the accused was absconded from his residence and the petitioner is not able to contact him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 01.06.2025 nearly 45 days. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner has cheated several persons as like the defacto complainant. He would further submit that subsequently similar complaint came to be registered against the

He would also submit that the accused received nearly Rs.26 lakhs from various persons and the investigation is in progress. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that in this case, that as the date of registration of F.I.R. is 01.06.2025, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed and the evidences are based on records and also the fact that the petitioner/accused remanded into judicial custody on 01.06.2025, taking into consideration of the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Kumbakonam and on further conditions that :-

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass

[b] The petitioner shall furnish his residential address and contact number to the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Kumbakonam. If the petitioner changes his residential address, he shall report the same to the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Kumbakonam;

[c] the petitioner shall appear and sign before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

CRL OP(MD).No.11439 of 2025

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 BNS.
