For Petitioner : Mr.R.Muthuram, Advocate.

For Respondent : Mr.B.Thanga Aravindh,
Government Advocate
(Criminal Side)

PETITION FOR BAIL Under Sec.483 of BNSS, 2023.

PRAYER :- For Bail in Crime No.258 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police.

CRL OP(MD). No.11508 of 2025

W I ORDER: The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner / accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 21.06.2025 for the offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 109(1), 308(4) and 351(3) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, in Crime No.258 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 21.06.2025, at about 07:30 a.m., while the defacto complainant was standing in front of his shop, the petitioner is said to have approached him and demanded that he hand over the money in his possession. When the defacto complainant refused, the petitioner allegedly abused him using filthy language, took a sum of Rs.500 from his pocket, and attempted to take his life. However, the defacto complainant managed to escape unhurt. Thereafter, the petitioner is said to have threatened the defacto complainant with dire consequences and fled from the scene. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. He would further submit that no injury was caused by the petitioner. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 21.06.2025. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner attempted to attack the defacto complainant and threatened him with dire consequences. He would further submit that there are thirteen previous cases against the petitioner. He would further submit that in this case no one sustained any injury at the hands of the petitioner. He would further submit that the alleged weapon has been recovered from the petitioner. He would also submit that the petitioner is a history-sheeter and, therefore, he opposes the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court has heard the learned counsel on both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence allegedly committed by the petitioner and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration and also the fact that the alleged property has already been recovered, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, however, subject to the following conditions:
