2. The case of the prosecution is that on 22.06.2025, the petitioner had drove his car in a rash and negligent manner and dashed against the father and brother-in-law of the defacto complainant who were standing on the left side of Tana to Ambur road and thereby, the father and brother-in-law of the defacto complainant sustained injuries for which they have admitted in the hospital and as per the intimation received from the hospital this case was registered. Further, he submitted that one of the injured was died and yet another has been taken treatment in the hospital and hence, the offence may be altered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner has no intention to cause death and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. He would further submit that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 23.06.2025. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and the investigation is almost completed. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and the investigation has been almost completed and taking into consideration of the period
