The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of BNS Act and 21(1) of the Mines & Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.63 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners along with other accused, illegally transported 4 units of river sand using a bullock cart and stored it on private land. Hence, a case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they are no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He further submitted that co-accused/A3 had already been granted anticipatory bail by this Court in Crl.OP(MD).No.11350 of 2025 dated 07.07.2025. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seek anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submits that there are totally five accused persons in this case and the petitioners have been arrayed as A1, A2 and A4. He further submitted that the entire properties have been recovered. He further submitted that there are no previous cases registered against the petitioners. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the investigation is almost completed and the property has been recovered and there is no previous case pending against the petitioners, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Aravakurichi, Karur, on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Aravakurichi, Karur, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
