(Amendment) Act, 2024 in Crime No.21 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 30.06.2025 at about 09.00hrs the respondent police was in routine surveillance, at that time, they found that this petitioner was in illegal possession of 48 liquor bottles, each bottle contained 180ml, the same was seized by the respondent police. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is a lady and she is having a child and she is a feeding mother. The petitioner undertakes to file undertaking affidavit stating she will not indulge in any further unlawful activities in future. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 30.06.2025 nearly 22 days. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the
