The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 338, 324, 115, 118(1), 351(3) of BNS 2023, in Crime No.68 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during temple festival, on 03.07.2025, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant's group, as a result of which, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant and also attacked him and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and the investigation is against the petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and the investigation has been almost completed and there is no previous case pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Ilaiyangudi, Sivagangai District, on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Ilaiyangudi, Sivagangai District, and on further conditions that:
