The petitioner has made a complaint before the Superintendent of Police, Tiruchirappalli that the 3rd respondent has received a sum of Rs.9 lakh from him in the year 2017 with an assurance that he would arrange a job for him in State Bank of India. He also claims that another sum of Rs.10 lakh was parted with by the petitioner to the 3rd respondent in the year 2020. With this averment the petitioner has lodged the complaint that the 3rd respondent by promising him to arrange for a job, had received a sum of Rs.25 lakh and cheated him.

2.The petitioner has approached this court that the respondent police have not taken action on his complaint. Therefore, the petitioner has filed this petition seeking a direction to the respondent police to take action on his complaint.

3.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police submits that the alleged transactions took place at Rajapalayam and in Chennai. The petitioner is a resident of Tenkasi. However he has lodged the complaint before the Superintendent of
