ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/Sole accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 85 and 316 of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.76 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant were fell in love and the marriage was solemnized between them on 10.07.2011. Thereafter, they were separated. Further, the petitioner approached the defacto complainant seeking apologize for his previous behaviour. Thereafter, the petitioner requested the defacto complainant to pledge her jewels. When the same was refused by the defacto complainant, the petitioner attacked her and took jewels weighing 477 gms worth about Rs.

25,00,000/- . Thereafter, again the petitioner demanded a sum of Rs.5,00,000/- to travel abroad.

When the same was refused, the petitioner abused her in filthy language and threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, a case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He, however, submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
