JUDGMENT
(By G.R.SWAMINATHAN, J.)

Heard both sides.

2.The appellant is a retired temple employee. Seeking payment of gratuity, she moved the Controlling Authority under the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. The claim was allowed and the temple management also had deposited the entire gratuity amount subsequently. In the meanwhile, to implement the order of the Controlling Authority, the appellant along with others filed W.P.(MD)No.7486 of 2020. The writ petition was allowed. However, the learned Single Judge directed that the gratuity amount allowed by the authority would carry interest at the rate of 6% per annum. Aggrieved by the same, this writ appeal has been filed.

3.The learned counsel for the appellant draws our attention to quite a few orders including the recent one passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in S.L.P.(C) No.20740 of 2022 (Gagan Bihari Prusty Vs. Paradip Port Trust) in which, award of 10% interest has been sustained.

4.The temple employees are paid pittance of salary. In such cases, it is only just and proper that 10% interest rate is awarded. Our attention is drawn to Section 7(3A) of the Payment of Gratuity Act. It states that the interest rate would be the one awarded for long term deposits by Reserve Bank of India as per the notification of the Central Government. It is seen that for long term deposits, the Reserve Bank of India has directed that 10% interest can be awarded.

W.A.(MD)No.2824 of 2025

5.In this view of the matter, we modify the order of the learned Single Judge. Instead of 6%, the interest rate to be paid to the appellant would be 10% per annum. The writ appeal is allowed on these terms.
No costs.
