PRAYER:-

For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.120 of 2025 on the file of the Respondent Police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners/A1 & A5, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.120 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to a previous motive, on 05.06.2025, when the de-facto complainant was approaching a bus stop, the accused persons allegedly picked up a quarrel with him, attacked him using a wooden log, and threatened him with dire consequences by showing a weapon. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that this is the second anticipatory bail application filed before this Court. The petitioners are innocent persons and have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners are willing to abide by any conditions that

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there are totally five accused persons in this case and the petitioners have been arrayed as A1 and A5. There are no previous cases registered against the petitioners. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and in view of the change in circumstances that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, and also taking note of the fact that there are no previous cases registered against the petitioners, and that as the date of occurrence is 05.06.2025, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Lalgudi on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Lalgudi, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

(a) the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(b) the petitioners shall furnish their residential address and mobile number to the learned Judicial Magistrate, Lalgudi. In the event of any change in their residential address, the petitioners shall report the same to the learned Judicial Magistrate, Lalgudi;

(c) the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders;

(d) the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(e) the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

(f) on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court themselves as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560] and;

(g) if the accused/petitioners thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of BNS, 2023.
