(1), 109, 351(3) of BNS in Crime No.306 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant was watering in their field at that time, the petitioner grazed his cattle in that agricultural land, when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant's father, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and his father in filthy language and also attacked them with sickle and caused grievous injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 10.06.2025 nearly 35 days and the petitioner is not having any previous case. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that when the defacto complainant was watering in their field at that time, the petitioner grazed his cattle in that agricultural land, when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant's father, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and his father in filthy language and also attacked them with sickle and caused grievous injuries. He would further submit that the injured persons have already been discharged from the hospital. He would further submit that the investigation is in progress. Hence, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that the injured persons have already been discharged from the hospital and the petitioner is not having any previous case and that as the date of registration of F.I.R. is 10.06.2025, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed and also considering the fact that the petitioner/ Accused is in judicial custody from 10.06.2025, taking into consideration of the period of incarceration, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate,
