2.The case of the prosecution is that based on secret information, the respondent police went to the occurrence place and made search. At that time they have found that the petitioner was in possession of drug tablets and syringe and he identified the first accused, who sold the drugs to the petitioner and on further enquiry, the first accused gave an information about the third accused, who is ordered to purchase the drugs through on-line. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 05.07.2025 nearly 12 days. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that on receiving secret information, the respondent police visited the occurrence place and made search in a two wheeler, wherein they found that the petitioner was in possession nearly 40 numbers of drug tablets and syringe and the same were recovered by the respondent police. He would further submit that the value of the property is worth about Rs.1,600/- and the two wheeler also recovered and that the investigation is pending. The petitioner is having four previous cases, out of which, three cases are similar in nature. Hence, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that the entire contraband were recovered and most of the investigation might have been completed also considering the fact that the petitioner/ Accused is in judicial custody from 05.07.2025, taking into consideration of the period of incarceration, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of learned Principal District and Sessions Court, Trichy and on further conditions that :-
