The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 189(2), 126(2), 296(b), 109(1), 118(1), 115 (2), 351(3) of BNS 2023, in Crime No.282 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a civil dispute pending between the defacto complainant and one Chidambaram. Further on 09.07.2025 at about 11.30 a.m., while the defacto complainant was returning from work near the petitioner's house, the petitioner along with other accused persons had waylaid the defacto complainant and abused him in filthy language and attacked him with iron rod and steel pipe due to which, the defacto complainant sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that there was a civil dispute, a false case has been given. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and the investigation is almost completed . He further submitted that there are eight previous cases pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and the investigation might have been completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Nanguneri, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Nanguneri, and on further
