2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and his friend namely Muralimanikandan and the accused persons have jointly done the business in the share market. Suddenly, there was loss in the business, the defacto complainant's friend could not repay the amount for his friend MuraliManikandan. Since there was a delay in repaying the amount. The petitioners have repeatedly demanded the debt amount, the same was not repaid. Thereafter, the accused 1 and 4 went to the defacto complainant's home and demanded money from his wife and brother and threatened them. In such circumstances, on 26.06.2025 when the defacto complainant's brother was waiting at Old Vilangudi stop, A1 and A3 along with other accused persons came there and questioned about the defacto complainant and pushed him into the Car and also threatened him with knife point. Hence, he contacted his brother/defacto complainant through phone and asked to pay the debt amount and rescue him. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner in CrI.OP(MD)No.11991 of 2025 would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is not present at the scene of occurrence and only based on the confession of accused persons, the petitioner has been added as accused. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioners in Crl.OP(MD)No.12007 of 2025 would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the first petitioner is the railway employee. The defacto complainant and his companion received a sum of Rs.10 lakhs from the first petitioner to meet out their loss in the share market. Despite several demand, they have not repaid the amount. When the petitioners came to Madurai from Trichy, the defacto complainant's brother voluntarily came along with the petitioners in a Car and promised that they will repay the amount immediately. Thereafter, the defacto complainant lodged the present complaint with intention to accuse the petitioners herein. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioners are in custody from 28.06.2025 and 27.06.2025 respectively. Hence, they seek bail.

5.The learned counsel for the intervening petitioner raised strong objections to allow these petitions.

6.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there existed money dispute between the parties. The defacto complainant and his companion received a sum of Rs.10 lakhs from the first petitioner to meet out their loss in the share market. Despite several demand, they have not repaid the amount. Due to that motive, on 26.06.2025 when the defacto complainant's brother was waiting at Old Vilangudi stop, A1 and A3 along with other accused persons came there and questioned about the defacto complainant and pushed him into the Car and also threatened him with knife point. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioners.

7.Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital and material part of the investigation might have been completed and also considering the fact that the petitioners/Accused are in judicial custody from 28.06.2025 and 27.06.2025 respectively, taking into consideration of the period of incarceration, this
