(1) of BNS and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.150 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a land dispute between the parties, due to which, on 01.05.2025 at about 10.30 pm, the petitioner along with other accused persons attacked the defacto complainant with wooden log. When the defacto complainant's husband and daughter tried to prevent the attack, the petitioner along with other accused attacked with wooden log and sword and caused injuries. As a result, the defacto complainant's husband succumbed to the injuries and died. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that he has suffered by chronic kidney disease and weekly twice or thrice he should go for dialysis. He has also produced the medical records to that effect. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that due to previous enmity, on 01.05.2025 at about 10.30 pm, the petitioner along with other accused persons attacked the defacto complainant and her husband with wooden log and sword and caused serious injuries. Subsequently, defacto complainant's husband succumbed to the injuries. He would further submit that though the petitioner involved in connection with murder case, considering the health condition and also the age of the petitioner, this petition may be considered.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that in this case, the petitioner has also sustained injury and also the fact that the petitioner has suffered by chronic kidney disease and weekly twice or thrice he is taking treatment of dialysis and the learned counsel for the petitioner has also produced the medical records to that effect. Considering the health condition of the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, Uthamapalayam and on further conditions that :-
