respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.91 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 12.07.2025, the defacto complainant arranged puberty function at his residence and in that function he was used loud speakers. When the same was questioned by the petitioners, there arose some wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, due to which, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked him. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the case in counter in Crime No.90 of 2025 is pending.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submits that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, due to which the petitioners abused the defacto complainant and attacked him. He would further submit that the counter case in Crime No.90 of 2025 is pending and the injured was discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking into account
