The petitioner/A2, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS @ 296 (b), 118(1), 351(3), 109 (1) of BNS, in Crime No.99 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto-complainant is the brick canal contractor and the first accused, who is brother of the petitioner/A2 is working under the Defacto-complainant and there is some dispute between them. On 26.05.2025, the first accused abused the defacto-complainant and his brother in filthy language and attempted to murder with sickle. The brother of the defacto-complainant sustained grievous injuries on his hand due to the assault of the first accused. This petitioner threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The first accused has already granted bail by this Court in Crl.OP(MD) No.11768 of 2025, dated 11.07.2025. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the defacto-complainant and his brother and the accused persons are working in the brick canal. The Accused No.1 quarrelled with some other person, that was resisted by the defacto-complainant. On keeping that in mind, on 26.05.2025, the petitioner along with A1 were assaulted the defacto-complainant and threatened with dire consequences. On 26.05.2025, the injured person was admitted in hospital and on 02.06.2025, he was discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that the first accused has been release on bail by this Court in CRL.OP(MD)No.11768 of 2025.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking into account of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the co-accused/A1 has already been released on bail and taking note of the fact that the occurrence had taken place on 26.05.2025, by this time, material part of the investigation might have been completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Kadaladi, Ramanathapuram District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Kadaladi,
