WEB COPY 2. Seeking to condone the delay of 273 days in preferring criminal revision petition, the petitioner herein had filed Crl.M.P.No.242 of 2025 before the Principal Sessions Judge, Madurai. The case is one with respect to grant of maintenance to his minor son. However, the learned Principal Sessions Judge had allowed the petition on the condition that the petitioner should deposit an amount of Rs.1,50,000/- to the credit of M.C.No.6 of 2022 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate Court, Vadipatti within a period of one month for allowing the condone delay petition. The said condition is challenged in this criminal revision case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that monthly maintenance of Rs.8,000/- has been ordered in favour of his minor son who is under the custody of his maternal grand-mother and that his wife has passed away. He is employed in Tiruppur in menial job and he is drawing only a monthly salary of Rs.8,000/- per month. As a result of which, he has financial constraints to immediately deposit an amount of Rs.1,50,000/-. He further pointed out that he was not able to approach his Advocate in time, as he was employed in Tiruppur in a private company where he could not avail leave at his convenience. Hence, he require this Court to modify the condition and direct him to deposit an amount of Rs.50,000/-.

4. Considering the limited scope of the revision case, notice to the respondent is dispensed with.

5. Considering the submissions of the learned counsel for the petitioner, this petition is allowed directing the petitioner to deposit an amount of Rs.75,000/- to the credit of M.C.No.6 of 2022 on the file of Judicial Magistrate, Vadipatti within a period of one (1) month from the date of receipt of copy of this order. Failing which, the order passed in Crl.M.P.No.242 of 2025, dated 17.06.2025 by the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Madurai will be automatically restored.

6. This Criminal Revision Case is allowed on the above said term. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
