IPC in Crime No.24 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner by giving false promise that he will marry the victim girl, had sexual intercourse with her and thereafter, he refused to marry her. Due to which, the defacto complainant dishearteningly decided to commit suicide and she jumped from the river bridge at Musiri. As a result, she sustained grievous injuries and admitted in Government hospital at Trichy. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 30.06.2025 nearly 12 days. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the petitioner and the defacto complainant loved each other and regularly they were talking through mobile phone. On 10.05.2022, the petitioner called the defacto complainant through phone and the petitioner by giving false promise that he will marry her, had sexual intercourse with her and thereafter, he refused to marry her. Hence, the defacto complainant disheartened and took a decision to commit suicide and she jumped from the river bridge at Musiri. As a result, she sustained grievous injuries. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and the statement under Section 183 of BNSS has already been recorded. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that the occurrence had taken place on 20.04.2025 and the FIR has been registered on 30.06.2025 and most of the investigation might have been completed and taking note of the fact that the statement under Section 183 of BNSS has already been recorded and the injured was discharged from the hospital also considering the fact that the petitioner/Accused is in judicial custody from 30.06.2025, taking into consideration of the period of incarceration, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a
