ORDER

Challenging the order of dismissal dated 27.06.2025, passed by the fourth respondent, the present writ petition has been filed by the petitioner.

2. When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned Additional Government Pleader appearing on behalf of the respondents 1 to 3 submitted that as against the order passed by the competent authority, an appeal remedy available before the appellate authority. Without exhausting the said appeal remedy, the petitioner has directly approached this Court.

3. In response, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the fourth respondent management has not even furnished any documents or particulars required to prefer an appeal.

4. Recording the submissions made by both parties and considering that the petitioner has an effective appellate remedy before the appellate authority, this writ petition is disposed of, granting liberty to the petitioner to approach the appellate authority and raise all the grounds raised in this writ petition in the appeal. However, since the petitioner has alleged that no documents have been furnished to enable him to avail the appellate remedy, the petitioner is directed to file a necessary application before the competent authority for furnishing the required particulars, within a period of one week from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Upon receipt of the said particulars, the petitioner is at liberty to file an appeal within a period of four weeks thereafter. On such filing of an
