2. The case of the prosecution is that on 12.07.2025 at about 05.00p.m. when the defacto-complainant and her husband were grazing cows near the crematorium situated on the eastern side of Om Sakthi Nagar, at that time, the accused persons allegedly questioned the same and they abused the defacto-complainant and her husband by using filthy language, hit him on his nose which caused injury and threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the respondent police lodged a false case against this petitioner. The petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions which may be imposed by this Hon'ble Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the accused persons joined together and they abused the defacto-complainant and her husband by using filthy language, attacked and threatened with dire consequences. The husband of the defacto-complainant sustained simple injury and he was admitted in hospital and later he was discharged from hospital. The co-accused were enlarged on bail by the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No.VI, Madurai on 22.07.2025 in CrI.MP.No.5072 of 2025. There is no previous case against this petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
