ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 329(4), 324(4), 115(2), 351(2) of BNS and Section 4 of TamilNadu Prohibition of Charging Exorbitant Interests Act, 2003 in Crime No.103 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that this petitioner is the neighbour of the defacto-complainant. The defacto-complainant borrowed a sum of Rs.1,50,000/- to this petitioner to meet out his family needs. Subsequently within two months, the defacto-complainant repaid the entire amount along with interest. However, the petitioner said to have threatened her to pay exorbitant interest. While being so, on 25.06.2025, since she refused to pay the exorbitant interest, the petitioner trespassed into the house of the defacto-complainant and assaulted her and damaged the house hold articles. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that due to previous enmity, the defacto-complainant lodged a false complaint against the petitioner. The petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offences as alleged by

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that this petitioner lending money for exorbitant interest. The defacto-complainant borrowed Rs.1,50,000/- from this petitioner. Though, the said amount had been repaid with interest, but the petitioner asked the defacto-complainant to pay exorbitant interest amount. The defacto-complainant refused the same, this petitioner trespassed into her house and assaulted her and damaged her household articles. This petitioner is having two previous cases. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, it is the case of money dispute, by this time the investigation might have been completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of her arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the
