The petitioners/ A2 & A3, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under sections 118(1), 191(2), 296(b) and 351(3) of BNS, in Crime No.352 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the first accused's son and the defacto complainant's son were studying at CEOA School in the year 2023. There was some motive between them. Hence, the defacto complainant transferred his son to SEV school. On 11.07.2025, the petitioners along with other accused went to the SEV school with knife for searching the defacto complainant's son and the same was informed to the defacto complainant by his son. In that regard, the defacto complainant contacted the first accused over phone, informed the above issue. The first accused with an intention to murder the defacto complainant and his son, called them to his house. When the defacto complainant and his son went to the first petitioner's house, the petitioners along with other accused persons abused them in filthy language and attacked with deadly weapons and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. They have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, they seek anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that due to previous enmity between the parties, the petitioners along with other accused persons abused the defacto complainant and his son, attacked them and caused injuries. He further submitted that the injured were discharged from the hospital. The first accused was arrested and still in custody, A4 was arrested and released on bail and A5 is absconding. The petitioners A2 and A3 are not having any previous case and the investigation is in progress. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and taking note of the fact that the injured were discharged from the hospital and the petitioners are not having any previous case and the date occurrence on 14.07.2025, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, with certain conditions.
