2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant has approached the accused persons regarding the old used car through their uncle for his official purpose of agricultural activities. Further, the accused persons have given two cars to the defacto complainant for lease purpose. Thereafter, the defacto complainant has transferred the amount of Rs.5,98,500/- to this petitioner and Rs.6,00,000/- to the 2nd accused. Furthermore, the accused persons wanted the cars back and informed the defato complainant that they will repay the amount of Rs.11,98,500/- On receipt of the cars, the accused persons have not repaid the amount to the defacto complainant and cheated him and abused him in filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner was also cheated by one Tamilarasan who is the 2nd accused and the petitioner has lodged a complaint before the Sulur Police Station, Coimbatore and the Police Department has issued petition receipt in CSR.No.10 of 2025. He further submitted that the 2nd accused has swindled
