The petitioner/Sole Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under section 303(2) of BNS r/w Section 21(4) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, in Crime No.185 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 09.07.2025 at about 04.30 pm, the petitioner/accused has illegally transported one unit of river sand in a Bolero Pickup vehicle bearing Reg.No.TN-63-AW-5262. Hence, a case has been registered.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person, and is no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that the petitioner is not having any previous case. He seeks anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submits that the accused has illegally transported one unit of river sand. He further submits that the properties and the vehicle were recovered and the investigation is in progress and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and considering the fact that the properties have been recovered and also the fact that the petitioner is not having any bad antecedents, this
