on having discussion with a woman during late night hours.

Therefore, the defacto complainant went to A1's house and questioned him and hence, the accused persons abused the defacto complainant and also assaulted him.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the the injuries are simple in nature and the defacto complainant was treated as out-patient. Further, he submits that the defacto complainant is the aggressor.

4.The learned counsel for the petitioner also submits that Section 18 of the SC/ST (POA) Act prohibits grant of anticipatory bail in the cases registered under the SC/ST (POA) Act. He further submits that this case is a foisted one and the petitioner will prove his innocence. In view of the bar under Section 18 of the SC/ST (POA) Act, the petitioner is inclined to surrender before the Special Court concerned and to seek regular bail. However, the petitioner seeks a direction for disposal of the bail application on the same day. He further submits that this Court in similar circumstances had issued directions to the Courts concerned where FIR is pending, to consider the bail application filed by the accused on the same day of his surrender.

5.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the official respondents submits that the injuries suffered by the defacto complainant are simple in nature.

6.This Court has considered the submissions made on either side and perused the available materials placed before this Court.

7.Considering the submissions made on either side, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed with a direction to the petitioner to surrender before the learned Additional District and
