2.The case of the prosecution is that initially A1 executed power deed in favour of the petitionenr. By suppressing the said transfer, A1 had given power to the defacto complainant through a Doc.No.4386/2015. Thereby, the petitioner and A1 cheated the defacto complainant. Hence, a case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He, however, submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the petitioner cheated the defacto complainant by way of power deed. He further submitted that there are no previous cases registered against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and also taking note of the fact that there are no previous cases
