The petitioners /A1 to A3, who were arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 18.06.2025 for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 296(b), 115 (2), 118(1), 351(3) and 105 of BNS, in Crime No.261 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the first petitioner is the wife of the defacto complainant. The second petitioner is the brother and the third petitioner is the close relative of the first petitioner. Due to matrimonial dispute between the first accused and the defacto complainant, the petitioners along with other accused went to the defacto complainant's home and abused the defacto complainant and his family members and also attacked them. In that incident, the defacto complainant's father died. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, the deceased was died due to heart attack. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. A4 and A5 were already released on bail by this Court in

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there existed matrimonial dispute between the first petitioner and the defacto complainant. Due to which, the petitioners along with other accused went to the defacto complainant's home and abused them in filthy language. The first accused attacked the defacto complainant with wooden log and the Accused 2 and 3 were also attacked the defacto complainant with iron crowbar, when the same was prevented by the defacto complainant's father, the accused persons attacked him and pushed him down on the ground. Due to which, he fell down unconsciously and subsequently, died. He would further submit that the petitioners are not having any previous case and the investigation is in progress. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of fact that A4 and A5 were already released on bail and the occurrence had taken place on 17.06.2025, most of the investigation might have been completed and considering the fact that the petitioners/Accused are in judicial custody from
