2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, this petitioner assaulted the deceased by using iron rod on his head, shoulder, legs and head which leads to the death of the deceased. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that this petitioner did not have any intention or motive to murder the deceased, due to sudden provocation, this petitioner attacked the deceased. This petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody from 01.06.2025, more than 55 days. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the deceased Sivakumar used to harass the wife of the petitioner in an inebriated condition and due to that motive, on 31.05.2025, the petitioner assaulted the deceased Sivakumar with iron rod on his head, shoulder, legs and hand which leads to the death of the deceased. There is no previous case against the petitioner. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that in this case, FIR was registered on 01.06.2025, by this time
