on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 13.07.2025, the petitioners abused the de-facto complainant, assaulted her by causing injuries, compelled her to withdraw the case filed by her son against the 1st petitioner, and also threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, the present case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that this is a case, case in counter. A counter case has also been registered against the de-facto complainant and 6 others in Crime No.303 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police. The petitioners are innocent persons and have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners are willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that this is a case, case in counter. There are totally two accused persons in this case. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and also taking note of the fact it is a case, case in counter, and that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, and that as the date of occurrence is 13.07.2025, by this time material part of the investigation might have been completed, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ambasamuthiram, Tirunelveli District on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ambasamuthiram, Tirunelveli District, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

(a) the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(b) the petitioners shall furnish their residential address and mobile number to the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ambasamuthiram, Tirunelveli District. In the event of any change in their residential address, the petitioners shall report the same to the
