2. The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant was induced into an online investment scam by the accused persons through Telegram and other online platforms, and was defrauded to the tune of Rs.10,64,020/-. Hence, a case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and is in no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He has been falsely implicated in this case solely based on the confession statement given by the co-accused. He further submitted that A1 and A2 were arrested and subsequently released on bail. He, however, submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.
