The petitioner/Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 326, 307 IPC r/w 3 of Explosive Substances Act 1908 and 3(1) of Prevention of Damage to Public Property Act 1984, in Crime No.92 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during temple festival, the first accused quarreled with his paternal uncle sons and assaulted them, when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, there arose dispute between the accused and the defacto complainant. In order to wreck vengeance, on 20.04.2024 at about 08.30 pm, the petitioner along with other accused persons abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, attacked him with deadly weapons and also thrown country bombs against him. Thereafter, the first accused tried to attack him with knife and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the co-accused was granted anticipatory bail by this Court in Crl.OP abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submits that on 20.04.2024, due to prior enmity with the defacto complainant in connection with temple festival, the first accused along with other accused persons, attacked the defacto complainant by deadly weapons and also using country bomb. He further submits that there are totally 21 accused in this case, the petitioner herein arrayed as A15. A5, A7 to A17 were already arrested and released on bail and A12 was granted anticipatory bail by this Court. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail by this Court.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking into account of the fact that the occurrence had taken place on 20.04.2024, by this time, most of the investigation might have been completed and some of the co-accused were already released on bail and A12 was already granted anticipatory bail by this Court, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
