respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2) and 351(3) of BNS, in Crime No.130 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 13.07.2025, at about 02.00 am, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and his wife in filthy language and also threatened them with dire consequences by showing Aruval. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submits that there was a property dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. Due to which, on 13.07.2025, at about 02.00 am, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant and his wife in filthy language and also threatened them with dire consequences by showing Aruval. He further submitted that no one was injured in this case and the investigation is pending.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and taking into account of the fact that no one was injured in this case and the occurrence had taken place on 13.07.2025, by this time, most of the investigation
