3.The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents 1 to 3 on written instructions, submitted that the survey is being conducted and they have intended to lay a road as per the record. The respondents are not intended to widen the road but, intended to lay road as per the revenue records.

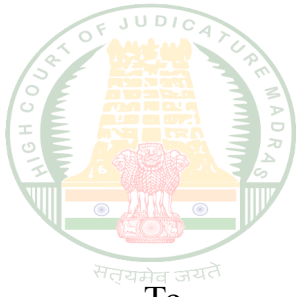

4.After hearing the rival submissions, this Court is of the considered opinion that the respondent is entitled to lay a road in the pathway as stated in the revenue records. However, if the respondents intended beyond the existing pathway, they can do so after acquisition proceedings.

5.With the above observations, this writ petition stands disposed of. No costs. Consequently, the connected writ miscellaneous petition is closed.
