WEB COPY ORDER: The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner/ A1, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 127(2), 140(3), 115(2) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.386 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 16.07.2025, at about 1.30 p.m., while the de-facto complainant, along with his two cousins, had gone to change a bike tyre, the petitioner sent a message to one of his cousins' phone stating that he had come to Madurai to meet him. The de-facto complainant took his cousin's phone and went to meet the petitioner. It is alleged that the petitioner, along with three others, forced the de-facto complainant into his car and threatened him, asking his cousin to come to the spot. Hence, a case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. In fact, on the date of occurrence, the de-facto complainant himself entered the car, and they discussed about the amicable settlement of the issue that had arisen between the petitioner and the de-facto complainant's cousin in Russia.

No one sustained any injuries due to the incident. He further submitted that there are no previous cases registered against the petitioner. 5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and also taking note of the fact that there are no previous cases registered against the petitioner, and that no one sustained any injuries due to the incident, and that as the date of occurrence is 16.07.2025, by this time material part of the investigation might have been completed, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of
