The petitioner/Sole Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under section 303(2) of BNS r/w Section 21(4) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, in Crime No.402 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 23.07.2025 at about 20.00 hours, the Sub-Inspector of Police went on routine inspection for sand theft, at that time, the petitioner/accused has illegally transported one unit of river sand in a tractor bearing Reg.No.TN-55-AA-9568. Hence, a case has been registered.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person, and is no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that the petitioner is not having any previous case. He seeks anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submits that the accused has illegally transported one unit of river sand. He further submits that the properties and the vehicle were recovered and the investigation is in progress and hence, he

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and considering the fact that the properties have been recovered and also the fact that the petitioner is not having any bad antecedents, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Sivagangai District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Sivagangai District, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

(a) the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;
