The petitioner/ A5, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under section 303(2) of BNS r/w Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.166 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 26.02.2025, when the respondent police was in routine patrol, the petitioner/accused along with other accused had illegally transported 4 units of river sand in a lorry bearing Reg.No.TN-46-J-2232. Hence, a case has been registered.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person, and is no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He has been implicated in this case only based on the confession of the co-accused. He further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submits that there are totally seven accused involved in this case. The petitioner herein arrayed as A5. The

He further submits that the properties have been recovered and the co-accused/A1 to A3 were already arrested and released on bail. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and considering the fact that the properties have been recovered and also the fact that the co-accused/A1 to A3 have already been released on bail and A7 has also been granted anticipatory bail by this Court in Crl.OP(MD) No.9306 of 2025, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Karur, Karur District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Karur, Karur
