Tamil Nadu Public Property (Prevent of Damage & Loss) Act 1992, in Crime No.512 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 26.07.2025, the defacto complainant along with police officials were on patrolling duty, the petitioner along with other accused illegally transported ½ unit of river sand. Hence, a case has been registered.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person, and is no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) submits that there are totally two accused in this case. The petitioner along with other accused illegally transported one unit of river sand. A1 was arrested and released on bail. The petitioner is having nine previous cases. He further submits that the properties and the vehicle were recovered and the investigation is in progress . However, he

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of the offence, and considering the fact that the properties have been recovered and the occurrence had taken place on 26.07.2025, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed and the co-accused was released on bail, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Thanjavur, Thanjavur District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Thanjavur, Thanjavur District, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

(a) the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb
