The petitioner/A3, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 112(2) and 318(2) of BNS r/w 7(3) of Lotteries Regulation Act, in Crime No.291 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on secret information regarding the sale of banned Kerala lottery tickets, the respondent police proceeded to the place of occurrence. Upon reaching the location, they conducted a search and seized three banned Kerala lottery tickets, cash amounting to Rs.200/-, and one mobile phone from the accused. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that there was no recovery from the petitioner. On the basis of the confession of first accused, this petitioner has been implicated. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there are totally three accused involved in this case. A1 and A2 have already been released on bail and the petitioner is having six previous cases. He further submitted that the entire properties have been recovered. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking into account of the fact that the entire properties have been recovered and the co-accused/ A1 and A2 have been released on bail by the trial Court and taking note of the fact that the occurrence had taken place on 31.05.2025, by this time, material part of the investigation might have been completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Thanjavur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Thanjavur, and on further conditions that:

(a) the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(b) the petitioner shall furnish his residential address and mobile number to the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Thanjavur. In the event of any change in his residential address, the petitioner shall report the same to the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Thanjavur;

(c) the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily twice at 10.30 a.m., and 05.00 pm., until further orders;

(d) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(e) the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

(f) on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560]; and;
