police for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, in Crime No.106 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there existed previous enmity due to a POCSO case registered against the second accused, arising from allegations of misbehaving with the defacto complainant's daughter. Consequent to the same, on 29.05.2025 at about 18.30 hours, when the defacto complainant and his relative came in a two wheeler near the Azhagar house of Valukkalotti, A1 kicked the two wheeler, due to which, the defacto complainant and his relative fell down from the vehicle, A2 had assaulted the defacto complainant by hands on his cheek, the other accused had assaulted with cricket bat and hands and thereby caused injuries to him and also threatened to kill him to withdraw the case against the petitioner. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there are totally eight accused persons involved in this case and the petitioner arrayed as A2. There existed previous enmity between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, the petitioner along with other accused persons attacked the defacto complainant and his relative and caused injuries. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the petitioner is having six previous cases. Except the petitioner, other accused persons have already granted anticipatory bail by the trial Court in Cr.M.P.No.1849 of 2025, dated 09.06.2025.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking into account of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the co-accused/A1, A3 to A8 have already granted anticipatory bail by the trial Court and taking note of the fact that the occurrence had taken place on 29.05.2025, by this time, material part of the investigation might have been completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of
