The petitioner/ Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 379 of IPC r/w. Section 21(1) of Mines & Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.66 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused illegally transported one unit of river sand using a bolero pick up truck bearing Registration No.TN-48-BY-8600. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that this is the second anticipatory bail application filed before this Court. This Court had earlier granted anticipatory bail to the petitioner on 23.07.2024 in CrI.O.P.(MD)No.11115 of 2024, but since the petitioner failed to produce sureties, the anticipatory bail granted earlier was dismissed. He further submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution, and that he has been falsely implicated in this case. He, however, submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that the petitioner is the sole accused in this case. There are no previous cases registered against the petitioner. He further submitted that the entire properties have already been recovered. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and taking note of the fact that the entire properties have already been recovered, and that as the date of occurrence is 28.05.2024, by this time most of the investigation might have been completed, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Musiri, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Musiri, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

(a) the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(g) on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in *P.K.Shaji Vs.
