respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 318(4) r/w.

Section 49 of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.24 of 2025 on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner herein and other accused are said to have induced the defacto complainant to deposit the amount for investments with an intention to defraud to the tune of Rs.2,50,00,000/-. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submits that the co-accused have already been released on anticipatory bail and the investigation of the case is almost completed.

4. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the co accused have already been released on bail and that the investigation of the case is almost completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Madurai within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity;

(b) the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police daily at 10.30 am for a period of two weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation;
