Crime No.2 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 31.12.2023, due to money dispute, the petitioner herein is said to have poured petrol and set fire on the deceased, who is the son of the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is a daily wage person and due to ill-health he could not appear before the trial Court and hence, NBW was issued. The petitioner is in custody from 08.11.2025, the petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions in future that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there are totally two accused in this case. Due to money dispute, the petitioner/A1 poured petrol on the defacto complainant's son and set fire. He further submitted that the petitioner is having two previous cases, out of which, one case is under 302 IPC. Earlier bail application in Crl.OP(MD)No.8917 of 2025 was dismissed by this Court, on 04.06.2025. He further submitted that after investigation, charge sheet has been filed and the case was taken on file in S.C.No.66 of 2024 on the file of the Additional District and Sessions Judge, Dindigul and also charges have been framed.
