2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner's husband and the defacto complainant had several business transactions. During the course of scrap business the defacto complainant had paid Rs.31 Lakhs as advance, but the petitioner has failed to supply scrap. Hence, a wordy quarrel arose between them through mobile phone. Hence, a case was registered.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that it is pure civil dispute and the defacto complainant using his political influence registered FIR against the petitioner and her husband and there is no specific overt act against the petitioner and therefore prays for anticipatory bail in favour of the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that A-1 was arrested and released on bail.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case anticipatory bail, this Court is inclined to grant interim anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
