For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.230 of 2025 on the file of the Respondent Police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) & 351 (3) of BNS in Crime No.230 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity with regard to temple festival on 22.07.2025, all the accused persons have made quarrel with the defacto-complainant and his companions and assaulted them, abused them with filthy language and threatened them with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners have also lodged a complaint against the defacto-complainant in Cr.No.231 of 2025. The petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners are ready and willing to abide any conditions which may be imposed by this Hon'ble Court. Hence, he seeks

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there was dispute between the two rival parties to conduct the temple festival in their locality. In which, on 22.07.2025, the petitioners scolded the defacto-complainant by using filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences and attacked them. The defacto-complainant sustained injury and admitted in hospital and he was treated as out patient. In this case, the Accused Nos.1,2,7 were already arrested and subsequently released on bail by the learned Judicial Magistrate, Manapparai in Crl.MP.No.798/2025. There are no previous case against these petitioners. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and also considering the fact that at the time of occurrence the defacto-complainant sustained simply injury and he was treated as out patient, a counter case in Cr.No.231 of 2025 also pending before the respondent police, Accused Nos.1,2,7 were already arrested and subsequently released on bail by the learned Judicial Magistrate, Manapparai in Crl.M.P.No.798/2025, there are no previous cases pending against these petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain
