The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) & 351(3) of BNS in Crime No.326 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, on 29.07.2025, these petitioners have made quarrel with the defacto-complainant and his companions and assaulted them and abused them with filthy language and threatened them with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners are ready and willing to abide any conditions which may be imposed by this Hon'ble Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that due to previous dispute, these petitioners attacked the defacto-complainant, he sustained simple injury and admitted in hospital on 26.07.2025 and on 02.08.2025 he was discharged from hospital. There are no previous case against these petitioners. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and also considering the fact that at the time of occurrence the defacto-complainant sustained simply injury and he was admitted in hospital and discharged from hospital on 02.08.2025, by this time material part of investigation might have been completed, there are no previous cases pending against these petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Manapparai on condition that the petitioner shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/-(Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) each with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate Court,
