of BNS in Crime No.574 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto-complainant is having an Omni car bearing registration No. TN 22 AB 5450 and he is renting the said car. On 18.07.2025 at about 12.30p.m., the accused persons have asked the defacto-complainant to drop them near Kongu mess and they have agreed to pay the rent. Thereafter, when they reached near Kongu Mess, when the defacto-complainant asked them to get down, the accused persons have asked the defacto-complainant to drop them near Andankovil road. When the defacto-complainant was proceeding towards Andankovil, the accused persons have pulled the defacto-complainant and covered his face with towel and assaulted him and robbed amount of Rs.600/- and tied his legs and hands of the defacto-complainant and they have locked the defacto-complainant in a room. Then they have taken away the omni car. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that this petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is ready and willing to abide any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that there are totally eight accused persons, this petitioner was arrayed as Accused No.1. This petitioner and other accused persons robbed an amount of Rs.600/- from the defacto-complainant. They also assaulted the defacto-complainant and tied his hands and legs and taken away his omni car. In this case, injured person was sustained simply injury and he was treated as out patient. The said omni car was recovered from the accused persons. All the accused persons are still in judicial custody. There is no previous case against this petitioner. However, he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that in this case, the car was recovered from the accused persons, the injured person was treated as out patient, there is no previous case against the petitioner, the petitioner/accused is in judicial custody from 20.07.2025, taking into consideration of the period of incarceration, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two
